

SUMMER-HITS

Summertime, summer-vacation ! Warm weather, sunshine, grilling, fishing, camping, beach, seagulls & girls In their summer-dresses & occasionally without. Nice...I really don't miss our minus 15 degrees dirty water-snow In the streets. Only a few hours of sunlight, frozen car-doors & polar bears just around the corner. No that's not true..polar bears. We don't have polar bears In main land Norway ! But we have satanists, oil & sometimes 14 days of summer.

You can actually smell It when spring arrives. Like expectations. Like, this summer this summer going to be special. Summer all year long, summer forever. I vote for that ! Cold drinks and festivals. Floating just above the ground on a silky cloud with no worries at all, everything just fine. No bills to pay, no jelling, no stress & summer hits.

What with those summer hits. A lot of times music you don't regularly listen too. Weird & surprising, easily catchy. One time me and my buddies had a road trip. We already pretty much done everything wrong we could. Rascals & outsiders. Not killers & rapists, not like that. But Stoners. No limitation on partying.

So we went on a trip, to Kristiania In Copenhagen. While driving down this song came on the stereo... Make Me Smile (Come up & See Me) by Steve Harley & Cockney Rebel. It set an awesome mood. Thats with the summer hits. They create a spesial mood. Sometimes define a whole summer. A whole life. Music Is so much more than important. Well, that song at that place and time. Hilarious. Still makes me laugh, great memories. 36 degrees & boiling sun. Kristiania, Copenhagen In the summer of 95.

Why we ended up camping right outside the wooden gates I don't know, but we did. Right outside with that lake In Kristiania. And one time at road trip...Taking a shit almost In public, blending In. Pusher street...

Rounding It up later that week we found ourselves In front of a big Mansion. Fascinating sight. After 3 rounds around the fountain with born to be wild on the stereo we sat course back home. Turned out that the mansion actually was The Queen of Denmarks Castle..... Details for another time, but Yeah school was definitely out forever !

Isn't that what we all want out of summer vacation. Release from our daily lives & a safe walk on the wild side. Memories for a lifetime. So summer hits, music In general. Set moods...It has no borders, has no religion, it's universal & Unites !
